FARU DISCOVERY WITH PETER ANDREW

Peter Andrew is our dedicated resident marine biologist, boasting extensive expertise in marine ecosystems and research studies. He excels in delivering educational presentations and facilitating snorkeling tours that directly connect guests with the marine environment.

Faru Discovery is an interactive and funny way to learn about the tropical coral reefs and their inhabitants. The program is tailored to the participant's age, the activities will focus on the marine life that thrives on our reefs - corals, colorful reef fish, resident sea turtles, and baby sharks.

Advance booking will be required.
