MALDIVES

From the Sea,
With Love

Festive Season 2025/2026

A season written by the Sea

This festive season, immerse yourself in a celebration inspired by the boundless beauty of the ocean, an elegant yet effortless gathering where the sea's power, mystery, and romance come alive.

From the moment you arrive, be swept into a world where shimmering reflections dance on water, performances flow like gentle tides, and every moment is touched by the spirit of love, connection, and renewal.

Here, the ocean speaks in whispers, the waves move in rhythm, and the tides turn toward a luminous new beginning, a season of magic, meaning, and unforgettable memories.

Into the Blue

Slip beneath the surface of the waters of Eri, where sunlight blurs into blue and life stirs in quiet, wondrous ways. Along our vibrant house reef, reef fish flit like brushstrokes, rays arc through open water, and sea turtles drift past the edge of seagrass plains.

Our guides know these depths by heart, revealing not the loudest wonders, but the quiet ones — the kind that linger.

Because here, underwater adventure is not about the rare or the rushed, but the richness of presence.

Steps Away, A Sea of Wonder Awaits

Just steps from shore, our dazzling house reef teems with life. Slip into the blue and discover coral gardens alive with colour, curious reef fish, and the slow, graceful movements of sea turtles.

Seeds of the Sea

Plant hope with your own hands. In this guided reef restoration experience, you'll place a reef ball into our lagoon — a small but powerful act of regeneration. As coral and marine life begin to find their way home, you become part of Eri's living legacy.

Paths the Sea Reveals

From the sea comes experience — layered, shifting, and alive with possibility. Some journeys bring you to nearby islands, where stories live in the rhythm of daily life. Others are simply about motion, the wind, the salt, the sense of leaving shore and not needing to know what comes next. Each one shaped by the sea, each one a memory in the making.

Voyage of the Sea Spirits

Step into the rhythm of island life with a visit to a nearby local village. Guided by stories and traditions, this cultural excursion offers a glimpse into Maldivian heritage — from craftsmanship to daily rituals — far from the tourist trail.

Hooked at Sunrise

Set off at dawn for a fishing adventure that begins as the reef stirs to life. This early morning journey is as much about stillness as it is about the thrill of the catch, with sunrise spilling colour across the ocean as your backdrop.

Poseidon's Picnic

A barefoot escape to a remote sandbank, where lunch is served in the middle of the sea. Surrounded by endless blue, it's a slow, sunlit afternoon of connection, calm, and island-crafted cuisine.

We saved you a spot,
come sea us!

Flavours Carried by Tide

At Eri, each meal is a reflection of the sea's abundance, from reef lobster grilled over open flame to tropical fruits shaped by sun and salt. The rhythms of the island unfold in every course, and its warmth lingers in each shared moment. These are flavours that connect us to one another and to something quietly enduring.

Grill & Gills by the Beach

The scent of firewood and spice drifts along the shoreline as chefs work barefoot in the sand. Seafood sears, flavours rise, and laughter spills into the night. This is not a meal to rush — it's one to share, with hands reaching across the table and stories unfolding with every passing plate.

Vintages by the Sea

As twilight softens the edges of the day, the sound of glasses clinking joins the rhythm of the waves. Wine is poured with care, courses arrive in quiet procession, and the conversation grows warmer with each bite.

Neptune's Harvest

Beneath a canopy of stars, the sea offers its finest. Freshly caught lobster, seasoned with salt and fire, is served steps from the shore. The breeze carries stories of deep water and ancient tides, while every bite speaks of the ocean's generosity.

Christmas feels warmer
with sand between our toes

A Season Cast in Sea Light

Shimmering Shores Celebration

As the lights flicker on across the island, gather with loved ones for a twilight celebration by the sea. Sip cocktails, savour festive canapés, and watch the tree glow beneath the setting sun. Feet in the sand, hearts aglow.

Yuletide by the Sea

A generous buffet of island and international favourites, served beneath swaying palms. Laughter mingles with the sound of the surf, and every plate tells a story of spice, comfort, and celebration.

Seashell Shuffle Christmas Party

The stars come out, the music starts low. Soon, the rhythm builds and the sand becomes a dance floor. Glasses clink, feet move, and the shoreline pulses with celebration.

Santa Claus Arrival

All eyes turn to the blue. No sleigh, no snow — just the sudden rush of water as Santa arrives by sea. It's a moment of surprise, of delight, of wide-eyed wonder made brighter by sunlight and salt. Christmas morning, made for memory.

First Light of The New Year

The Great Eri Treasure Hunt

Set off on a sunlit island quest, with clues hidden like seashells along the shore. A playful, curious farewell to the year — where every turn holds a discovery, and every step brings a smile.

Pearls of Poseidon Gala Dinner

An evening woven from sea and celebration. Live stations sizzle, aromas linger in the air, and each dish tells a story of the year just lived. This is a feast that invites you to linger, to savour, to reflect — with the sea just steps away and something new on the horizon.

Last Splash of '25

One last thrill before the tide turns. Ride the waves across turquoise waters, the wind at your back and the island behind you — a final burst of joy before the quiet of midnight settles in.

Countdown to the New Year

When the moment arrives, it doesn't rush. It floats — like a breath held at the edge of the tide. Fireworks bloom, waves murmur, and the new year opens with light, salt, and the nearness of everything that matters.

Seaborn Beginnings

The first meal of the year arrives gently — laidback, flavourful, kissed by the sun. Plates pass between friends and strangers alike. The air is soft, the food bright, and the feeling unmistakable: a new beginning, wrapped in ease.
