RIHLA UNDER THE GUIDING LIGHT OF THE MOON

Indulge on a Rihla which translates to journey, under the guiding light of the moon. From the Gulf of Oman to the vast Middle East, towards the region of Asia, we celebrate the guiding light that unites us all, symbolising renewal, patience, reflection, and the celebration.

Our culinary journey, mirroring the moon's timeless phases from Suhoor to Iftar, transforms every dining moment into a cherished memory.

THE KITCHEN RESTAURANT

SULTANATE OF OMAN

Rihla under the guiding light of the moon

Dear Esteemed Guest, Ramadan Kareem from Kempinski Hotel Muscat. By embracing the traditions of Ramadan, you can gain a richer appreciation of Omani culture and truly experience the spirit of the month, all while enjoying the luxurious offerings of Kempinski. During Ramadan:

- ♦ The pool, spa, and health club will be accessible to all guests.
- ♦ Outdoor activities and hobbies in Muscat are allowed throughout Ramadan.
- ♦ Please note that modest attire is required in public areas and on the beaches, while swimwear is acceptable around the pool and beach areas within the hotel.
- ♦ Public consumption of food and beverages outdoors during daylight hours is generally discouraged, except for children. We recommend dining indoors whenever possible.
- ♦ Restaurants and cafes may have modified operating hours during Ramadan.
- ♦ We offer takeaway meals for scheduled tours and transfers during this month.
- ♦ Alcoholic beverages will be available at the hotel after sunset for non-fasting inhouse guests, specifically in designated dining venues. They can also be ordered through in-room dining throughout the day.

Best regards,

Kempinski Hotel Muscat Management
