Sustainability

Veranda Resorts is dedicated to preserving nature and engaging with society. As a holder of the Green Key certification, we uphold rigorous sustainability standards recognized by the Global Sustainable Tourism Council. Our sustainability program, Now For Tomorrow, embodies our commitment through various key initiatives:

We attain international recognition for our outstanding performance in sustainability through the Green Key certification program across all our resorts.

We collaborate with Reef Conservation, a local NGO, to mitigate human impacts on marine ecosystems and coastal environments through mangrove restoration programs and community sensitization campaigns.

We pledge to the Global Tourism Plastics Initiative by replacing unnecessary and problematic single-use plastics in our operations with reusable and recyclable alternatives, thereby reducing environmental harm.

We support the Fam Unie Foundation, focusing on empowering women from vulnerable communities through employment opportunities.

We contribute to the local economy by partnering with local artisans to repurpose materials in product development and creation.

We reinforce our commitment to Foodwise, a social enterprise dedicated to combating food wastage and malnutrition in Mauritius.

We offer our guests the possibility to be engaged in our ecological actions through a voluntary contribution program, at the end of their stay.
