JEBEL SIFAH, OMAN

Inspired by Nature.

What is Blue?

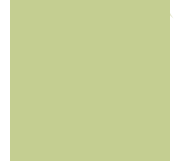

WHAT IS BLUE? By Sai Pranathi, Oman

Blue is the sight of the peaceful sky, which has no limit and is very high. Blue has the shades of dark and light, which in the crayon box looks very bright! Blue is the colour of the deep sea, A feather from the bird chirping on a tree. Blue is the colour of the writing ink, also the shade of a precious gem!

*Blue is the sound of the music beats,
Which makes the dancers do many feats.*

LOCATION SULTANATE OF OMAN

Since time immemorial, the Sultanate of Oman has enthralled travellers with its exquisite landscapes, enduring traditions and proud heritage. It is a country where modernity coexists with the cherished Omani culture – lending a unique charm to this jewel of the Middle East. The country’s capital, Muscat, is a cosmopolitan city with modern infrastructure, flourishing businesses and high quality of health care and education. Although the official language is Arabic, English is widely spoken. Comprising an area of 309,500 sq km, Oman is bordered by Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, the Republic of Yemen, the Strait of Hormuz and the Arabian Sea.

Tranquil haven of relaxation

DESTINATION JEBEL SIFAH

Jebel Sifah is located 45km or less than one hour drive away from downtown Muscat. The scenic destination is fringed by sandy white beaches and turquoise waters of the Arabian Sea and surrounded by the majestic Hajjar mountain range. The way to Jebel Sifah passes through the peaceful fishing village of Sifah. Beautiful views of the mountains, the sea and its friendly people all make this modest unobtrusive village a wonderful neighbor to have. Jebel Sifah's unique architecture combines indigenous elements with classic Middle Eastern design. A strong essence of traditional Oman is also mirrored in the use of rich and vibrant colours.

Jebel Sifah spreads over an area of 6.2 million square metres. Jebel Sifah is designed with wide open spaces and healthy outdoor living in mind. With an array of freehold homes, world-class marina, glorious golf course and a boutique hotel set just moments away from the crystal clear waters of the Gulf of Oman, Jebel Sifah is life as it should be.

*Blue is the drop of the falling rain,
Which comes to reduce the farmer's pain!*
