GETTING TO CAP CANA

LOCATION

Eden Roc Boutique Suites & Beach Club is located in Cap Cana, the most exclusive private estate of the Punta Cana area at the eastern tip of the Dominican Republic.

Eden Roc Cap Cana is a five-star Relais & Châteaux resort nestled in Cap Cana, the most exclusive gated beachfront community of the Dominican Republic. The 30,000 acre community is home to pristine beaches, towering cliffs, tropical forests, a bustling marina, and the No. 1 golf course in the Caribbean, a Jack Nicklaus signature course.

Blending the impeccable standards of the French and Italian Riviéras with the warmth and relaxed charms of the Caribbean, Eden Roc Cap Cana presents 64 all-suite accommodations, 32 lavish Boutique Suites and two multi-bedroom villas, all with private pools and remarkable comforts, 26 two-bedroom beachfront suites revealed in Spring 2017 and 4 gorgeous Oceanfront Bungalows.

The resort recently enhanced its beach club with Blue Flag certified private beach to add an infinity pool and International themed BLUE Grill + Bar. Culinary experiences also include fine-dining Mediterraneo Restaurant with Culinary Director Adriano Venturini at the helm; oceanfront La Palapa, featuring international cuisine with traditional local influence; and a visiting celebrity chef series providing one of the most diverse gastronomic experiences in the Caribbean.

Eden Roc Cap Cana boasts the first Natura Bissé spa in the world with world-class spa and fitness facilities, a kid's club for children ages 4-12 and intimate function space for corporate retreats and events.

ECOLOGICAL WONDERLAND

Eden Roc Cap Cana is a leader in sustainable tourism, implementing incredibly extensive, eco-friendly conservation practices property-wide. Our luxury resort is built to abide by the highest of eco-standards, offering indulgence with awareness, and has been awarded the By Green Key 2016 and 2019. From energy and water conservation to responsible, sustainable culinary practices, Eden Roc is passionate about green hospitality. It's part of our DNA. Our resort revolves around the protection of our natural environment, home to hundreds of indigenous flora and fauna. We provide electric golf carts and bicycles throughout our guests stay. All additional operational carts are hybrid vehicles with a minimal carbon footprint. We are proud of our environmentally responsible culinary practices in the kitchen and beyond. Eden Roc is a certified Seafood Watch partner for our sustainable seafood purchasing practices.

Spearheading the resort's robust food & beverage programming is Culinary Director Adriano Venturini, passionate about clean culinary practices, focused on healthy, whole foods of high quality and taste. He is responsible for debuting the resort's organic garden, featuring an abundance of fruits, vegetables, and herbs, served to guests in each of our restaurants and bars. The resort also has a multi-faceted "Green Operations" program for trash, water and energy practices far surpassing the basics of recycling - from our elimination of Styrofoam and significant reduction of single use plastic to the removal of all plastic straws.

We utilize water filters across the resort - providing guests with recycled aluminum bottles in place of plastic - and our bathroom amenities are provided to our guests in large, refillable bottles. All of our water used at Eden Roc is obtained from a natural well and is then filtered through a practice called inverse osmosis. We also recycle the "gray" water from our guest rooms and laundry services in an in-house treatment plant - this water is then used for landscape irrigation. The resort is built to abide by the highest of eco-standards, offering indulgence with awareness, and a safe place for our environment.

APIARY TOUR

A unique and educational experience. The Apiary Tour takes adults and children to the heart of a beehive. Thousands of buzzing bees fly around as we explain how these tiny but powerful creatures work and live.

IGUABONITA CAVE

CULINARY EXPERIENCES

Led by Adriano Venturini Culinary Director, the culinary team creates an extraordinary dining experience for you based on sustainable practices and locally procured ingredients. The resort is certified by Bay Aquarium as a Seafood Watch partner, which promotes the consumption of Dominican seafood.

ADOPT A TREE

Trees can, like sponges, help sequester carbon and thus reduce the impact of man-made CO₂ emissions. Locally, trees provide habitat for wildlife, food for people and animals, and stabilize the soil. The gift of a tree lasts for generations. Eden Roc offers the opportunity to support tree planting and maintenance through a program called Adopt-a-Tree. Imagine living this experience as a family, planting trees with which you will help to contribute to reforestation, connect with nature, help the planet, take care of our ecosystem and leave your own tree planted in paradise.

DOMINICAN CULTURE

CULTURE

The culture of the Dominican Republic is a diverse mix of different influences from around the world. The Dominican people and their customs have origins that predominantly consist of a European cultural base, with both African and native Taino influences.

CARNIVAL

Carnival in the Dominican Republic is every February with parades, street dances, food festivals, and music the week before Easter Sunday. The festivities take place in every town of the country. In June, the Holy Spirit is honored to commemorate the island's African heritage with national festivals of African music. In Puerto Plata, concerts, dance groups, arts and crafts stands, and chefs also pay homage to Dominican heritage with an annual cultural festival. The 16 of August the Fiesta Patria de la Restauración, or Restoration Day, celebrates the Dominican Republic's Independence Day from Spain in 1863. National events include parades, music festivals, street festivals, and food festivals.

MUSIC

Bachata, a form of music and dance that originated in the countryside and marginal rural neighborhoods of the Dominican Republic, has become quite popular in recent years. Themes are usually romantic; especially frequent are stories of anguish and sadness. In fact, the original name of the genre was amargue (“bitterness”, or “bitter music”, or blues music), until the rather ambiguous (and mood-neutral) term bachata became popular. Bachata emerged from, and is still closely related to the Latin American romantic style called bolero. Over time, it has been influenced by merengue and a variety of Latin American guitar styles.

DOMINICAN GASTRONOMY

The cuisine of the Dominican Republic is primarily made up of a combination of Spanish, indigenous Taíno, and African influences. Many Middle Eastern dishes have been adopted into Dominican cuisine, such as the “Quipe” which comes from the Lebanese kibbeh. Dominican cuisine resembles that of other Latin American countries, especially those of the nearby islands of Puerto Rico and Cuba, although the names of the dishes sometimes differ. A traditional breakfast would consist of mangu, sauteed onions, fried eggs, fried salami, fried cheese, and sometimes avocado. This is called “The Three Hits” or “The Three Hits”. As in Spain, the biggest and most important meal of the day is lunch. Its most typical form, nicknamed La Bandera (“The Flag”), consists of rice, red beans, and meat (beef, chicken, pork, or fish), sometimes accompanied by a salad.
