About Trader Vic's Seychelles

- ✓ In 1934, Mr Victor Bergeron also known as 'The Trader' opened a small saloon in Oakland, California. After travelling to Cuba to deepen his knowledge on rum and bartending, he landed in Hawaii and immersed himself in the culture and the island way of life.
- ✓ In 1944, he created the now famous Mai Tai Cocktail, meaning 'The Best' in Tahitian.
- ✓ Upon his return to Oakland, he decided to continue the island way of life and in 1973, he transformed his saloon into a tiki-bedecked tropical retreat named "Trader Vic's".
- ✓ Serving rum based cocktails and a fusion of Polynesian and Asian food, the 15 restaurants situated in different countries worldwide all have a distinct Polynesian décor.
- ✓ Trader Vic's Seychelles features a live Cuban band to embody the true spirit of the brand..

Opening Hours: 1700 -0100
 Live Band:
 Sunday to Thursday: 1930 – 2300
 Friday & Saturday: 2030 – Midnight
