

A full-page photograph of two women dancing joyfully on a sandy beach dune. The woman on the left is wearing a long, flowing, coral-colored dress and has her back to the camera, her head tilted back and hair blowing in the wind. The woman on the right is wearing a dark blue, sleeveless, flowing dress and is smiling broadly at the camera, her hair also blowing in the wind. The background shows a vast, sandy dune landscape with some dry grasses under a bright, slightly cloudy sky. The overall mood is carefree and luxurious.
